The Objectives of The Texas Permian Historical Society:

- To collect, preserve, and publish the history of the Permian area of West Texas.
- To emphasize the value in the teaching of local and Texas history in public schools.
- To make available official records, letters, diaries, biographical data, photographs, etc., for research and study.
- To obtain private collections in order to preserve them for posterity.

"No man is fit to be entrusted with the control of the present who is ignorant of the past, and no People who are indifferent to their past need hope to make their future great."
