Spring Meeting

President's Message

Dear Fellow Historians,

Yikes, another year has flown by, where did the last one go?

What a great time we had in Crane for the fall meeting 2016. . The Petroleum Museum has once again welcomed us to use their facilities to hold our spring meeting. Their renovations have been completed and this will be a great time to explore the new digs. Our meeting will begin at 9:00 AM with light breakfast items and plenty of good visiting. If you were not able to attend the fall meeting, this will be a good time to pay your yearly dues and pick up the annual. Please contact Betty Damron 432 693 7672 or Sue Ann Damron 432 393 5790 if you are coming so we can prepare enough food.

Calling All Authors

If you would like to have a display table to share your books during Breakfast and Social Hour please contact Betty Damron so that we have plenty of space available.

Speakers

The speakers we have lined up for this meeting are going to present us with a wonderful program.

- The Midland Army Air Field (Sloan Field) and the rich history will be presented by
- Bruce Glasrud from San Antonio will present a program on the history of the Buffalo Soldiers in the West. He will bring his books for us to browse through also.
- Tommy Owens of the Owens family ranch will give us the history of the family and the years of ranching in this harsh West Texas.
- Joe Specht, managers of the McWhiney History Education Group of Abilene will entertain us with stories and songs from Abilene.

Lunch will be served after the morning presentations. During lunch we will give our choice of speaker to Sue Ann Damron. We will announce the winner of the Crane speakers. Price $12.00, please RSVP so we can be certain of enough food.

The Historical marker for the Crane High School has not arrived as of this date.
